Dr. Greg Dale, PhD

Gregory Dale is a Professor of Sport Psychology and Sport Ethics at Duke University. He is also the Director of Mental Training and Co-Director of the Leadership Program for Duke Athletics. In addition to his work with Duke's athletes and coaches, Greg consults with numerous college and professional athletes and teams as well as corporate groups. He is currently working with our CCSD Student Athletes and Coaches.

Greg has written three books related to leadership and performance, and has been featured on Good Morning America, MSNBC, and numerous national radio programs. He is a member of the Sport Psychology Staff for USA Track and Field and is a dynamic speaker who provides a variety of interactive and innovative workshops around the country and the world.

The Cherry Creek School District Athletic and Activities Department is honored to have the opportunity for Dr. Dale to present a

Parent Session: April 28th, 7:00 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. at

Cherokee Trail High School 25901 E. Arapahoe Road, Aurora, CO 80016

This is a great opportunity for the entire Cherry Creek District Athletic Community, including our youth organizations to engage with one of the top sports psychologists in the nation. Greg Dale provides a stage to give parents some introspective ideals to consider when working with their children as student athletes.
